Automotive Maintenance

Modern automobiles are important to many aspects of American life. Those who service automobiles must understand each principle, and how these principles interact to provide smooth, efficient performance. Owners of cars also benefit by understanding how their vehicles operate. This enables them to understand why certain periodic maintenance is required to keep their vehicles in tip-top shape.

Maximum number of participants: 10

Aviation

For most of history, people have dreamed of flying, imagining how it would feel to soar through the sky like an eagle or hover in midair like a hummingbird, to float on unseen currents, free of Earth's constant tug, able to travel great distances and to rise above any obstacle. Today, through aviation, we can not only join the birds but also fly farther, faster, and higher than they ever could.

Maximum number of participants: 20

NOTE: To take this MB you will need some sort of transportation on day two.

Backpacking

Earning the Backpacking merit badge will be demanding but rewarding. Scouts will learn what equipment to carry on their backs and what knowledge to have in their heads. In addition, Scouts will discover how to protect the environment by traveling and camping without leaving a trace. By mastering the basics of backpacking, Scouts will develop an even deeper respect for the outdoors.

Maximum number of participants: 10

Prerequisites: Bring your back packing supplies with you to class and the ten essentials.

NOTE: This Merit Badge will not be completed. Complete requirement 10 to finish this Merit Badge. Please make sure to bring your backpacking gear with the 10 essentials. No Tent is Needed.

Camping

Camping is one of the best-known methods of the Scouting movement. When he founded the Scouting movement in the early 1900s, Robert Baden-Powell encouraged every Scout to learn the art of living out-of-doors. He believed a young person able to take care of himself while camping would have the confidence to meet life's other challenges, too.

Maximum number of participants: 20

NOTE: This Merit Badge will not be completed. Complete requirements 4b, 5e, 7b, 8d, 9a, 9b, 9c, and 10 to complete this Merit Badge.

Citizenship in the Community

A nation is a patchwork of communities that differ from each other and may be governed differently. But regardless of how local communities differ, they all have one point in common: In the United States, local government means self-government. Good citizens help to make decisions about their community through their elected local officials.

Maximum number of participants: 20

Prerequisites: #3a; #3b; #7a; #7b; #7c

NOTE: This Merit Badge will not be completed. Complete requirements 3 and 7 to complete Merit Badge.

Emergency Preparedness

Scouts are often called upon to help because they know first aid and they know about the discipline and planning needed to react to an emergency situation. Earning this merit badge helps a Scout to be prepared by learning the actions that can be helpful and needed before, during, and after an emergency.

Maximum number of participants: 25

Prerequisites: Ahead of the workshop, do the following requirements and bring evidence of completion, either as a workbook with the sections completed signed off by your Scoutmaster or the written plan and photos i.e. of the emergency kit

7. Do the following: Find out if there is a plan.

(b) Prepare a written plan for mobilizing your troop when needed to do emergency service. If there is already a plan, explain it. Tell your part in making it work.

8. Do the following:

(b) Prepare a personal emergency service pack for a mobilization call. Prepare a family emergency kit (suitcase or waterproof box) for use by your family in case an emergency evacuation is needed. Explain the needs and uses of the contents.

9. Do ONE of the following:

(a) Using a safety checklist approved by your counselor, inspect your home for potential hazards. Explain the hazards you find and how they can be corrected. OR
(b) Review or develop a plan of escape for your family in case of fire in your home.
