2. Be registered in Scouting in the Caddo Area Council
3. Be a member in good standing in the lodge (dues paid)

9. Set the example by correctly wearing a full Class A uniform.
10. Conduct themselves at all times according to the highest standards of the Scout Oath, Law, and OA Obligation.

The success of a Lodge is dependent on active, engaged officers. Each officer will have an experienced adult adviser assigned to him to coach, guide and assist him in the execution of his duties. Lodge officers are expected to effectively budget their time and diligently work with their adviser, fellow officers, chairmen, and other Arrowmen. Many officers have served with distinction and managed their other responsibilities well. However, any officer who finds that he cannot keep up with his duties or balance these duties with other commitments and obligations will be expected to resign or will be removed from office.
