

IOLS – Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills is a training course that provides leaders with basic skills and information to run a successful outdoor program.

BSA requires at least 1 IOLS trained leader to be on every Scout overnight. It is required of all Scoutmasters and Asst Scoutmasters. Other Scouts BSA Leaders are welcome to take this training.

Leaders will learn the necessary basic skills in helping scouts work towards earning the First Class Rank. The course will cover fire building, using wood tools, hiking, packing for a trip, where to setup a tent, map and compass, knots, lashings, cooking, first aid and other skills.

This class will be at Mt Norris Scout Reservation on Friday Oct 11. Check-in between 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. and will end on Saturday Oct 12 at 5 p.m. Each leader, as required by the program, will sleep overnight in their tent and get the full camping experience.

This is an outdoor overnight camping event. Participants need to bring their own tent and camping equipment.

BSA Medical forms A/B will be required. Cost: $50 Co-Op / $55 Reg - Registration limited to 24 - No Walk Ins

Friday October 11-Saturday October 12, 2024 at Mt. Norris Scout Reservation, Eden VT
