Bevin Alexander

Silver Beaver Honoree Bevin Alexander of Lynchburg earned the Eagle Award in 1969. He is a Vigil Honor member of the Order of the Arrow. He has been active since the early '90's with Troop 7, chartered to the First Presbyterian Church in Lynchburg, serving as Scoutmaster, assistant Scoutmaster, and committee member. Bevin was instrumental in organizing T 49 F, also chartered to the First Presbyterian Church. He is an enthusiastic assistant Scoutmaster there and an outdoorsman. He has become an enthusiastic supporter of programs that introduce young women to Scouting, devoting a great deal of energy to building T49 F and developing programs and activities for them.

Bevin practices law, he was appointed twice by the General Assembly to serve on the Judicial Inquiry and Review Committee. He served for eight years, assisting the legal profession statewide and ensuring judicial quality in our Commonwealth. Much of Bevin's volunteer work in Scouting is behind the scenes, advocating for the organization within the legal community and beyond for support of the program especially for shooting sports.

In addition to Scouting, Bevin serves on several local non-profit organization boards that support conservation. He has coordinated Scouting activities with the Izaak Walton League, the Amateur Radio Relay League, and the Friends of Campbell County Animal Control. Bevin has also provided pro bono legal advice, raised money, and given both time and materials to help youth in our Blue Ridge Mountains Council.

Don Barker

Silver Beaver Honoree Don Barker of Blacksburg earned his Eagle Scout Award with a Bronze Palm in 1976. A Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow, he was a youth representative in 1979 for the annual Report to the Governor.

Since 2013, Don has served as the Scoutmaster of Troop 704, chartered to Luther Memorial Lutheran Church in Blacksburg. He further serves as council vice-president of the council for properties. He has assisted youth as a merit badge counselor while organizing activities such as the annual district Klondike Derby. Don has been a trainer of other Scouters: youth protection; outdoor skills; and Scoutmasters and assistants. Past Scouting awards include the District Award of Merit, Scouter of the Year, the George Gerberich Distinguished Service Award; and membership in the James E. West Society.

For over 35 years, Don was a real estate broker with BCR Real Estate. He is now an associate broker for United Country Real Estate, Blue Ridge Land and Auction Company.

Outside of Scouting, Don has served on the New River Apartment Council for 32 years, serving twice as president. He was on the state legislative committee of the Virginia Apartment Association for 29 years. From 2011 to 2015, he was on the board of directors of Downtown Blacksburg, Inc., supporting local businesses. For 15 years, he was the adviser to Zeta chapter of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Christopher Bower

Silver Beaver Honoree Chris Bower of Floyd is a self-employed carpenter/designer who spends an enormous amount of time helping youth in Scouting and in the community at large. During the past seven years, he has been an active leader in Pack and Troop 36, chartered to Floyd Baptist Church, receiving the District Award of Merit in 2019. His Scouting resume' includes being a Popcorn Kernel, directing Webelos and Cub

Resident Camps, organizing registrants for the council Trout-o-ree, building theme structures for Cub resident camp, and creating a walk-through museum. Chris enthusiastically serves on the council's Reservation and Properties Committees. He has served the Floyd community as Scoutmaster of Troop 36.

Outside of his church and Scouting activities, Chris co-founded a community Legos program, teaching hands-on robotics, entrepreneurial, and STEM skills. He also coaches community recreational sports teams (baseball, basketball, and golf). He is instrumental in raising money for scholarships for local youth. He is very active in the Christiansburg Church of the Brethren.

John Griessmayer

Silver Beaver Honoree John Griessmayer of Forest began his Scouting journey in the 1950's in Brooklyn, New York. He has spent the last four decades as an adult Scouter in the Blue Ridge Mountains Council. Since 1980, he has been the chairman of Troop 180, chartered to the Mountain View United Methodist Church in Forest, Virginia. John has served five years on the council's activities and camping committees and as chairman of the advancement committee. Over the years, he has earned the Scouter's Key, the Whitney M. Young Award, his church's adult leadership award, and Scouter's Wood Badge.

John's nominator took special note of his impact on Troop 180, especially on the Eagle Scout candidates he tutored, and on the troops which benefitted from his involvement in a district camporee. He is a recognized servant leader.

Professionally, John is the president and owner of "The Perfect Fix" Company. He is an expert craftsman and has used his skills to build or repair many facilities at Camp Ottari, He has been an active member of the Rotary and Lions clubs in Forest.
