Guide to Safe Scouting: Online Version | Boy Scouts of America

Scouts BSA

Whenever possible, separate cabins or lodging should be provided for male and female adults as well as for male and female youth. Where completely separate accommodations are not available, additional supervision is required.

- If adults and youth of the same gender occupy single-room accommodations, there must be a minimum of two adults and four youth, with all adults being Youth Protection trained.
- Physical separation by other means, including temporary barriers or space, should be used only when no other arrangements are possible.

Cub Scouts

- There will be a separate Family Camping Area
- There must be one BALOO certified leader camping with each Pack
