

Tucker County, Blackwater Falls State Park

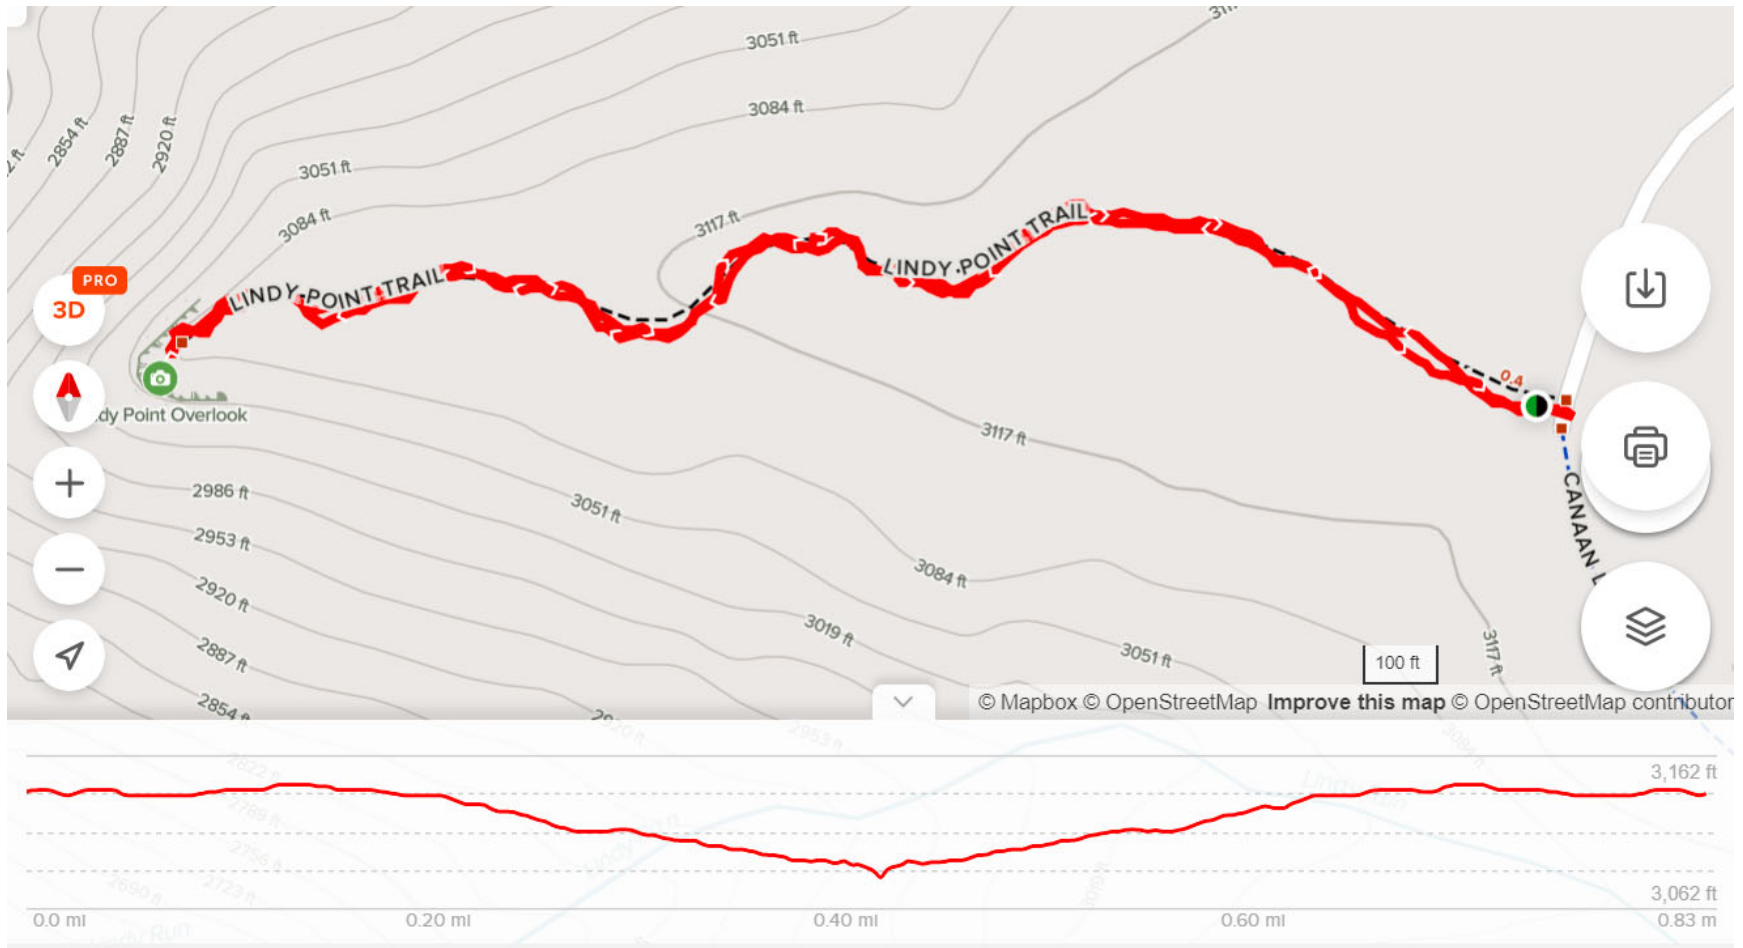

Remember your camera for this hike. A 57-foot waterfall can be seen from a viewing platform on the way to the Blackwater Lodge or you can take the steps down to the falls. Pendleton Point and Lindy Point feature a view of the Blackwater Canyon. A Davis trail lets you see local wildflowers and foliage and is a beautiful out and back hike.

- Parking available at the petting zoo, on the way to the Blackwater Lodge for the A Davis Trail.
- Parking available at the Falls.
- Drive past the Lodge to get to Lindy Point. Limited parking spots available.
