Camp Mountaineer Welcome Song

*We Welcome you to Mountaineer!
We're mighty glad you're here!
We'll sing you all reverberating with our cheer.
We'll sing you in.
We'll sing you out.
You will raise a mighty shout.
Hail, Hail, the gang's all here.
And you're welcome to Mountaineer!*

Note: This is the song Dr. Lee Pyles taught us at our second campfire last month.

*“The end is character— character with a purpose.
And that purpose, that the next generation be sane in an insane world,
and develop the higher realization of Service,
the active service of Love and Duty to God and neighbor”*

Lord Robert Baden-Powell March 1939

The Unknown Japanese Scout

In Japan is a memorial to the Unknown Japanese Scout who showed mercy to a wounded American Soldier during WWII. The Japanese Soldier came upon a wounded American coming in and out of consciousness. The last memory of the American was the Japanese bayonet in place to kill him. As he passed out he unconsciously made the Boy Scout salute. When the American became conscious, he was in the care of American medical personnel. The American Soldier found a note in his pocket from the Japanese Soldier explaining when he saw the Scout salute he could not kill a fellow Scout.

An act of sanity in an insane world.

Scouting : A Worldwide Force for Peace In Developing Global Citizens

The World Organization of the Scout Movement (WOSM), together with the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), was one of 95 organizations and 234 individuals nominated for the 2021 Nobel Peace Prize, recognizing the outstanding contributions of Scouting and Guiding that have empowered hundreds of millions of young people to create a lasting culture of peace in their communities for more than a century.

The Nobel nomination was submitted by Norwegian Liberty Party MP, Solveig Schytz, former Chief Commissioner of The Guides and Scouts of Norway and a current volunteer for the Scout Movement.

The Scout Movement is all about giving young people the tools they need to solve the challenges of the future, while building strong civil society. This work is vital to world peace,” said Mrs. Solveig Schytz in her nomination.

“At a time when our world is threatened by so many international challenges, be it climate, wars or the pandemics, we need a counterweight to egoism and nationalism. We need to offer young people a chance to rally around a set of common values and the belief in service, not only to one’s own community, but to international society.”

Over the past decade alone, World Scouting’s flagship Messengers of Peace initiative has inspired Scouts around the world to take action in their communities by contributing to peace and sustainable development, contributing more than 16 million local projects and actions. For more information on Messengers of Peace go to: <https://www.scouting.org/international/messengers-of-peace/>

Scouting’s national, regional and world events are organized around the pillars of cross-cultural collaboration and peace-building, including World Scout Jamborees and JOTA-JOTI (Jamboree on the Air - Jamboree on the Internet) that connect millions of young people to be active global citizens. By teaching young people about the values of respect and duty to others, Scouts are working to build a world that is more peaceful and inclusive for people of all ages.

Lord Baden-Powell in 1933 and Scouting in 1957 were nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize.

The 2021 Prize was awarded to Journalists Maria Ressa and Dimitry Muratov “for their efforts to safeguard freedom of expression” in the Philippines and Russia.

Religious Emblems

A Scout is reverent. She or he is reverent toward God and is faithful in his or her religious duties and seeks to understand and respect the faith of others.

Faith communities have developed the religious emblems program to encourage Scouts to grow stronger in their faith. Even though this program does not belong to BSA, the program is recognized by BSA. The medals are approved to be worn on the official uniform. Each faith community has established the requirements for their Religious Emblem Program.

Interfaith Service Sunday @ 9:20 am Dr. Lee Pyles will deliver the message We will receive an offering for the World Friendship Fund.

At the end of World War II, Scouts of all ages in war-torn countries had lost everything and needed help to restart their Scouting programs. In response to these Scouts' needs, the World Friendship Fund was created. Fundraising efforts were successful and, through the contributions of the members of the Boy Scouts of America, made many things available in the years just after the war, such as equipment, uniforms, insignia, program material, and camping gear. As a result, Scouting is now flourishing in these countries.

Today Since that war, we have seen the development of new nations and the democratization of others. These nations want their youth to have the benefits of Scouting. They need funding and materials for training, camping, manuals, and uniforms.

Checks for the offering should be made payable to Mountaineer Area Council
