

The Great Hall Gathering...

As witches and wizards gather from across the wizarding world, there must be a time and place to reunite with old friends, meet new ones, and come together in fellowship before facing whatever challenges lie ahead at Hogwarts.

Part of bonding with magical folk from different houses and lands is sharing your favorite enchanted treats. Perhaps you've perfected a batch of "Honeydukes Sugar Quills," or maybe your specialty is a refreshing jug of "Pumpkin Juice." You might even bring a mysterious snack inspired by the treats found on the Hogwarts Express!

When we gather in the Great Hall Friday night for music and fellowship, please bring a bag, basket, or cauldron of your favorite magical snack to share with your fellow witches and wizards. Be sure to include a note describing the magical origins of your treat so others may appreciate its story. Make your note large and clear—easy enough for even a distracted first-year to read!

Arrive with the most creative and enchanting presentation, and you may earn an award worthy of display in the Hogwarts trophy room—one that will make even the most seasoned wizard jealous.

Cracker-barrel begins at 9:00 PM, with judging from 9:00–9:15 PM.

We know that a little magic—and plenty of good food—will bring us all together in true Hogwarts spirit!
