

Cub Scout Haunted Adventure Weekend
October 17-19 and 24-26, 2025
Camp Davy Crockett
142 Scout Camp Rd, Whitesburg, TN 37891

We're so glad that you've decided to join us for some fun! When you arrive, your first stop will be Headquarters for Check In.

Friday 5-9pm

Saturday 8-9am

If you are camping overnight, you may drive a vehicle to drop your gear at the campsite, then return to the parking area. Vehicles must remain in the parking area during camp for safety.

What should I bring?

- | | | |
|--|--------------------|-----------------------------------|
| • Warm clothes (layers) | • Rain gear/poncho | • Sleeping pad |
| • Extra socks | • Toiletries | • Pillow |
| • Jacket/coat/hats/gloves | • Flashlight | • Medications |
| • Closed toe comfortable shoes (lots of walking) | • Water bottle | • Folding camp chair |
| | • Sleeping bag | • Spending money for trading post |

Complete and bring Part A and B Health Forms with you (adults and scouts). You will need to have these with you should you need medical attention.

In addition to your regular camp gear, you'll need some special things for this event:

- | | |
|---|--|
| • Sunday breakfast | • Carved pumpkin – You may carve it in advance or at your campsite during the event. Bring your own carving tools, pumpkins, and lights. Bring your carved pumpkin to the pool shelter 5:00 PM Saturday. |
| • Costume | |
| • Trick or Treat bag | |
| • Packs are asked to prepare treat bags to hand out during Trunk or Treat Saturday evening. | |

What will accommodations be like?

You will be assigned to a bunk house with 4 beds. There are no mattresses or electricity. When registering, please list the names of family who will attend with you so we may group you correctly for room assignments.
