Medical Information

- Scouting America Health A,B, and C Forms are required. These must be fully filled out.
- Scoutmasters will need to collect a physical copy of the Health ABC forms from every registered participant. These will be turned in and reviewed by the Camp Medical Officer (CMO) during check in.
- The CMO must complete a health check of every registered participant upon arrival.
  - All medications will be collected and stored by the CMO with the exception of emergency medications
  - In order for the CMO to be authorized to administer over the counter medication, please make sure to check the appropriate box on the Health A form.
- Food Allergies: All allergies or dietary restrictions must be communicated before camp. Please enter this information in your registration.
  - If a food allergy or dietary restriction was designated, that participant will receive an allergen sticker, placed on their nametag, at check in.
  - Only those with this allergen sticker will be allowed to access the meals/food designated.
  - If there are concerns or very specific restrictions, individuals may want to consider supplementing camp food of their own.

FEC Camp Advancement Policy

Merit Badges:

- Counselors only sign off on requirements that the Scout has actually and personally completed at camp.
- For some badges, Scouts may only complete part of a badge at camp and will need to finish remaining requirements with another counselor after returning home.
- Ultimate responsibility for Merit Badge/Advancement Tracking are on the Scout / Scoutmaster

Rank Advancement:

- If an adult volunteer from another unit (not the Scout's) agrees to verify a Scout completed a requirement at camp, they shall sign the advancement form.
- Scout returns the advancement form to their Scoutmaster.
- No one at camp signs a Scout's physical handbook except the Scout's own Scoutmaster / authorized signatories from the Scout's own unit.

Boards of Review:

- Boards are generally not held at camp.
- Any exception requires the Troop Committee Chair to arrange approval with the Council Advancement Committee prior to camp, or the TCC is at the camp to arrange the board directly.
- Eagle Boards must be arranged through District Advancement Chair per usual practice.
