The Coyote

This years patch celebrates our twenty-fourth year of the Winter Rendezvous as we recognize the roles of trappers, traders, native tribes and wildlife living in the Northwest Territory .

Families and friends are encouraged to participate and visitors are welcome.

Adult family members are responsible for the supervision of their children.

Cubs and Webelos must be accompanied by a parent or adult partner to camp overnight.

Please dress appropriately for outdoor winter weather.

Fires are permitted on fire trays only, request a tray at check-in if you wish to have a fire.

BOY SCOUT / VENTURING ACTIVITIES

BOY SCOUT / VENTURING KLONDIKE EVENT

(Subject to change)

REGISTRATION AND SCHEDULING: Teams MUST register in advance to guarantee a start time. Registered teams will be assigned a start time after arrival at the rendezvous. Teams will leave on regular, 10-minute intervals, beginning at 9am. Once started, the challenge stations must be completed without interruption. This means you cannot leave the course [for any reason] and then return. Teams absent when their start time arrives will be sent to the end of the line and may not be able to compete. PLEASE NOTE: This event will run continuously from 9am - 3pm, ie, through the normal lunch break, to insure maximum participation. Please plan accordingly.

BASIC GUIDELINES: Assemble a team of 4-8 members. Select a Team Representative or SPL to attend the Friday 9 pm Unit Leader/SPL Meeting. Each team is required to have a Klondike-style sled. NO MORE than 2 teams should plan to share a sled. A list of equipment/gear needed for each sled or by each scout, will be handed out at the Friday 9pm Leader meeting. Remember - "Be Prepared". The sled can be adapted to weather and course conditions, but every sled MUST have traditional "runners" as an option. Other permissible sled options will be announced at the Friday night Youth Leaders Meeting by the Derby Chairman, based on course and weather conditions. All sleds must be able to safely transport any adult Scouter over the entire course. All derby stations will include mandatory scored or timed elements. The overall team score will be based entirely on the combined score for all derby events completed.

General Events for Boy Scouts, Venturers and Adults

Events run from 9am—12 noon and 1pm-4pm

One-Tough Voyageur (West Ridge)— individual obstacle course. Score will be based on time.

OA Fire Challenge (West Ridge)— Compete against fellow teams to build the fastest fire...bring your own natural materials. Afternoon only 1-4pm.

Tomahawk Throw (P) – Individual best throws determine winner.

Snowshoe Race (J) – Individual best time on course determines winner.

Cooking – Youth members of unit may prepare 1 or 2 dishes. Categories are Vegetable, Meat, Bread or Dessert. Adults may supervise only. Judges will be looking for taste, appearance and effort put into your culinary best. Judging will occur 12 Noon to 1PM at the Dining Hall (D). Adult leaders may participate separately.

Shooting Sports – BB Rifle Dueling Tree (B); .22 Rifle Dueling Tree (I).
