

Donaldson Scouting Education Day

Here is a unique opportunity to learn and earn a variety of vocational merit badges from experts in the field at Donaldson Company, a Fortune 1000 global manufacturing company headquartered in Bloomington, Minnesota. This is a hands-on “merit badge madness” event sponsored by Donaldson and taking place at the Donaldson Headquarters, where scouts will have the opportunity to learn at actual laboratories, workrooms and offices where these trades are practiced every day. Earn one or two merit badges in a small group setting- register now as classes are limited.

Merit Badges Offered:

Chemistry (Please complete requirement 7b before class and bring with you)

Composite Materials (Please complete requirements 2a and 2b before class and bring with you)
