Welcome to the University of Scouting, 2019. This one-day event is designed to provide supplemental training opportunities, ideas and resources that will benefit you in whatever position you serve in a Cub Scout Pack, Scout Troop or Venturing Crew. Whether you are new to scouting or a seasoned volunteer, this is a great opportunity to make new connections, meet new people and grow in your understanding of scouting and its benefits in our area. The event is open to both youth (12 and above) and adults.

This year there are a couple of changes worth noting: being held in a new building with more visibility between colleges/sessions and accessibility between colleges/ floors, a dedicated lunch hour that gives you time to stop into our midway while providing an opportunity for fellowship, idea exchanges and more with other Scouters/ Scouts, and degree printing services so you can get your degree certificate right at our event.

This year we have several curricular colleges offering courses in Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Venturing, General Studies, and Youth Leadership. These courses are designed to supplement the leader-specific training you took for your position. We are also planning to offer a limited number of computer stations for adults wanting to complete their online leader-specific training. Whatever your interests, with over 50 courses on the roster, you're sure to find something that fits your needs. We hope you use this opportunity to take a variety of courses across the colleges.

Our host this year is the Rochester Institute of Technology, the Lyndon Baines Johnson Hall (at NTID) with special assistance from the RIT chapter of Alpha Phi Omega society. This venue has a large number of classrooms and a food court that will be available to participants.

The following pages should give you all the information you need about this event. If there is anything missing or anything we can do to help, please email us at bn@yzi.zvm.mzx.mytnx^a

On behalf of the University of Scouting team, we look forward to seeing you in March.

R.J. Stansbury, Ph.D.
Chancellor, University of Scouting

Hamilton, Zzyll, ©

Training Degree Requirements

The University of Scouting degree program is an optional and informal program for adults wanting to track their training progress. Adults should track their own progress as they move through the degree programs.

Degree Level	Requirements
Associate	Be fully trained for your scouting position(s) and complete a day of study (at least three courses) at a University of Scouting event.
Bachelor	Complete requirements for Associate's Degree. Complete an additional day of study (minimum 4 courses) at a second University of Scouting event.
Master	Complete requirements for Bachelor's Degree. Complete an additional day of study (minimum 4 courses) at a third University of Scouting event. Teach or co-teach one course at the University of Scouting. Teach or co-teach (staff) one course at an additional training event (e.g. District Day of Training, BALOO, etc.).
Doctor	Complete requirements for the Master's Degree. Complete an additional day of study (minimum 4 courses) at a fourth University of Scouting event. Teach or co-teach one additional training course at the University of Scouting. Complete approx. 100 hours combined of supplemental training (total hours can include degree level training). Examples include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wood Badge (earn beads) (100+hrs) • Strategic Training Planning Conference (16+) • Trainer's Edge • Powder Horn • Okpik (16hrs) and Leave No Trace Trainer (16hrs) • Wilderness First Aid (16hrs)

Application forms handed in on event day can be processed at our printing station to receive your degree while attending University of Scouting.

Scouters interested in the degree program can apply for their respective degree by completing a degree application form (available online or at the Scout Service Center). The application form is a good way to keep track of your progress. Recognition pins for the Master's and Doctor's degrees are available for purchase at the Scout Service Center and on event day while at University of Scouting.

Applications for the above degrees are found at this link: <https://scoutingevent.com/397-uofs>

If you have questions, please contact your District Training Chair or contact us at info@senecascouting.org
