SCA5 Captain's Advanced Sailing

Must have completed Boatswains or previous advanced sailing
 This advanced sailing program reinforces the skills learned in the Mates and Boatswains Sailing Programs. Scouts participating in this one-of-a-kind course will learn advanced marine navigation, advanced boat repair, and crewing larger vessels. This course is an excellent team building experience for scouts to learn about sailing larger boats and working together. The skills learned during the week will culminate in an overnight trip to a base across Lake Norris for a special camping trek! Participants will refresh skills from the Boatswains program Monday by crew sailing JY-15 sailboats, then the rest of the week their skills will be honed by sailing Hobie Catamarans and the legendary Lightning 18 sailboat!

SCH3 Leatherwork, Wood Carving

Scouts who complete the requirements to earn the Leatherwork merit badge will explore leather's history and its endless uses. They will learn to make a useful leather item using the same types of raw materials that our ancestors used; be challenged to master skills like hand-stitching, lacing, and braiding.; and learn how to preserve and protect leather items so they will last a lifetime and beyond.

As with any art, wood carving involves learning the basics of design, along with material selection and tools and techniques, as well as wood-carving safety. The requirements of the Wood Carving merit badge introduce Scouts to an enjoyable hobby and that can become a lifetime activity.

Summer Camp Native American (Scheduled Classes)

SCNA1 American Cultures, American Heritage

The United States is a nation of immigrants. Every person came to America from somewhere else - or their ancestors did - and understanding these various cultural backgrounds can help Scouts to live in harmony with others in our varied and increasingly multicultural society.

Every Scout swears to an oath that includes duty to his country. A better understanding of American heritage, the ways in which the past has lead to our present nation, is key to truly knowing what it means to be an American.

SCNA3 Indian Lore

Far different from the stereotypes or common images that are portrayed on film, on television, and in many books and stories, American Indians have many different cultures, languages, religions, styles of dress, and ways of life. To learn about these different groups is to take an exciting journey of discovery in which you will meet some of America's most fascinating peoples.

SCNA4 Woodsmen/Primitive Cooking

Advanced outdoor survival skills for Scouts who have already earned the Wilderness Survival Merit Badge. Learn Native American survival skills and practices, primitive weapons history, fire making, history of Seminoles, hide tanning, and flint napping. If you love the Native American Village you will love this class, and appreciate the Native way of life much more. In this class you will learn to make your very own survival sticks, that you can take with you on future camp outs. This is one of camp's most popular classes and fills up quickly.

SCS1 Camping

Camping is one of the best-known methods of the Scouting movement. When he founded the Scouting movement in the early 1900s, Robert Baden-Powell encouraged every Scout to learn the art of living out-of-doors. He believed a young person able to take care of himself while camping would have the confidence to meet life's other challenges, too.

SCS9 First Aid

First aid - caring for injured or ill persons until they can receive professional medical care - is an important skill for every Scout. With some knowledge of first aid, a Scout can provide immediate care and help to someone who is hurt or who becomes ill. First aid can help prevent infection and serious loss of blood. It could even save a limb or a life.

SCS5 Pioneering

Pioneering-the knowledge of ropes, knots, and splices along with the ability to build rustic structures by lashing together poles and spars-is among the oldest of Scouting's skills. Practicing rope use and completing projects with lashings also allow Scouts to connect with past generations, ancestors who used many of these skills as they sailed the open seas and lived in America's forests and prairies.

SCSS1 Archery

Archery is a fun way for Scouts to exercise minds as well as bodies, developing a steady hand, a good eye, and a disciplined mind. This merit badge can provide a thorough introduction to those who are new to the bow and arrow - but even for the experienced archer, earning the badge can help to increase the understanding and appreciation of archery.

SCSS2 Rifle Shooting (Option A - Modern Cartridge)

Unless a rifle is handled incorrectly or recklessly, it is not dangerous. A rifle, like any other precision instrument, is manufactured to perform a specific task and can do so at no risk to the user or others. By earning this badge, Scouts can develop their shooting skills while learning safe practices.

Games also come in almost every shape, size, format, and flavor imaginable. Games can be fast-paced, slow, or anything in between. Some are competitive. Some are cooperative. They may be for individuals, small groups, or thousands of players at a time. They might take seconds to complete or last for years. However you slice it, everyone has played games, and games help make us who we are.
